Acknowledging and celebrating the achievements of South Australian women

The Hon Zoe Bettison MP, Minister for the Status of Women, invites you to nominate an outstanding woman in the community to be included in the 2017 South Australian Women's Honour Roll. Initiated in 2008, the Honour Roll is now held every second year and acknowledges the amazing contribution that women make to our community.

Many women who have made a significant impact at a community, national and international level go unrecognised within the public sphere and the Honour Roll seeks to change this.

Twenty women who have made an outstanding contribution to our community will be included in the 2017 South Australian Women's Honour Roll publication. All women nominated will be included on the ongoing list of nominees on the Office for Women website which can be accessed at www.officeforwomen.sa.gov.au

Who can be nominated?

- Nominees must currently reside in South Australia.
- Women may nominate themselves.
- Women who are deceased may be nominated.

How are nominations assessed?

A selection panel comprising representatives from a cross section of the community will provide recommendations from the nominations received.

Nominations close

5pm Friday 9 June 2017
